INTERESTED IN TUCUMCARI AND QUAY COUNTY

EDITOR NEWS:—

Geronimo, Okla., Oct. 11, '07.

I have been away from Tucumcari since September 1st, and am very much pleased to learn through your paper of the steady and rapid growth and business industries of Tucumcari. Crops around Lawton are a little below the average yield, some cotton having been completely destroyed by hail.

I left Southern Iowa on February 10, 1901, and came to Comanche county, Oklahoma. I remained in Oklahoma until January, 1907, when I moved over-land to the prosperous county of Quay, New Mexico.

I would like very much to get home in time to attend the Quay County Fair, but it will be impossible for me to reach home before next month.

I am first, last and all the time for Tucumcari and surrounding country. Quite a number of Comanche county people are expecting to come to Quay county this fall in search of homesteads.

Yours truly,
O. O. GIRDNER,
Geronimo, Okla.

NEW MEXICO FIRMLY FOR ROOSEVELT

Corrects Interview After His Meeting With President at St. Louis—Makes Important Declaration.

GOV. CURRY SENDS STATEMENT TO THE WORLD

The New York World telegraphed to Governor Curry in connection with an interview published shortly after the governor's meeting with President Roosevelt in St. Louis, in which Governor Curry was quoted as having said that the president was a passive receptive candidate for a re-nomination. The World asked the governor for a statement as to just what he had said in connection with the president and re-nomination.

In reply to this query, which had also been sent to local newspaper men, the governor sent a statement to the World which not only corrects the interview, which misquoted him, but which makes a very important declaration, expressing as it does Governor Curry's belief that this territory is for Mr. Roosevelt for re-nomination and if not for him, at least for a man who will stand for the carrying out of the Roosevelt policies. The governor's statement, which he gave to the newspapers here at the time he sent it to the World, is as follows:

Albuquerque, N. M., Oct 11.
The World, New York;
Dispatches referred to do not quote me exactly correct. My mission to the president was in regard to statehood and other matters of interest to New Mexico. I took occasion to tell the president that the people of New Mexico feel very kindly to him and appreciate what he is doing to benefit the west. The president did not discuss his candidacy or anything relating to the presidential election with me.

"In my opinion the delegation to the national republican convention from New Mexico will be instructed for the re-nomination of President Roosevelt, and his own friends here could not prevent it if they desired, as the feeling is strong here that he should succeed himself in order that he may carry to a successful conclusion the policies that he has inaugurated. Should President Roosevelt refuse to accept a nomination, the people of New Mexico will support whoever they believe will come nearest to carrying out the policies of President Roosevelt.

GEORGE CURRY
Governor of New Mexico.
